

CDL Class A / Warehouse Coordinator

Small business looking for the right candidate that wants to build a career and learn the fast-paced telecommunication industry.

This position first responsibility is for the delivery of products using company truck to customers in the telecommunications construction industry. Current CDL-A license and clean MVR are required. Secondary will be the ability to learn the products and customers to become a full part of the family culture.

Requirements:

- Year-round work
- Paid holidays and vacations
- Full Benefits (health, life, dental, vision)
- 401k After 12 months of work
- Perform pre and post vehicle inspections
- Courteously interaction with customers and dispatchers
- Follow all safety policies and procedures
- Ensure commercial driver's license/medical card is valid and current
- Report all accidents and injuries immediately
- Clean MVR & PSP
- Successfully pass a D.O.T. physical and pre-placement drug screen
- Develop good knowledge of inventory
- Bilingual in English and Spanish preferred
- Perform other job-related duties assigned that are focused in the warehouse and sales office
- General knowledge of computer a must

Please send resumé to: GeorgeBevan-Church@teamgallowy.com