Come join us for a virtual networking and trivia night via Kumospace. Kumospace is the world's most immersive video chat platform where you get to decide who you want to interact with and what conversations you want to join.

The cost to join will be $10/person and all proceeds will be donated to the Lodine Robinson Scholarship Fund.

This is an event you won't want to miss.

Our Core Purpose | To enhance the success of women in the construction industry.
